Align Credit Union Supports the Lowell Student Police Academy

Lowell, MA, July 28, 2015 - Align Credit Union is proud to announce that it has sponsored the Lowell Student Police Academy for the fifth consecutive year. The Academy is a summer camp program run by the Lowell Police School Resource Officers for students in grades 5 through 8 from Lowell and the surrounding towns. The three-week program is run at the Lowell High School and mirrors the regimented official training academy for new police officers. Students participate in a wide range of activities including physical fitness exercises, CPR and first-aid training, education on anti-bullying, gang prevention, internet safety, drug and alcohol awareness and more. Students are taught discipline and leadership that will help them make good life choices.

“For 17 years, this program has made a difference in the lives of our city’s youth,” said Align President Ken Del Rossi. “Graduates become confident and successful in school and in life. Align is happy to help this program continue.”
