Lowell, MA, November 30, 2016 - Align Credit Union was proud to be one of the leading sponsors of this year's "Project Helping Hands" Thanksgiving Food Drive organized by the Manolis Family Foundation, Inc. The annual drive provides a complete Thanksgiving dinner to families throughout Merrimack Valley.

On Monday, November 21st, Align's Community Crew packaged turkeys, vegetables and drinks to help make a wholesome Thanksgiving meal. The packages were delivered to area families as well as nursing homes, women's shelters and the Dracut Food Pantry.

"The Manolis Family Foundation, Inc. has been providing Thanksgiving meals for families in need for over 23 years," said Foundation Board Member and Treasurer, Nick Manolis. "Align Credit Union is an important part of our Foundation's community outreach program. Their support and belief in community responsibility is invaluable. The Foundation, in partnership with Align Credit Union, was able to feed over 2,000 families in the Merrimack Valley area with a complete Thanksgiving meal."

"The Manolis Family Foundation does such a wonderful job supporting individuals and families in our communities," said Align President Ken Del Rossi. "We're pleased that we can help with this food drive and make the holidays a little bit brighter for those in need."
