Align Credit Union Celebrates Opening of New Wilmington Location

Lowell, MA, November 17, 2017 - Align Credit Union was pleased to celebrate the recent grand opening of their new location in Wilmington, Massachusetts with a ribbon cutting circled by Align employees and local business owners on November 8th. The branch, located at 211G Lowell Street, next to Lucci's Supermarket, is Align's seventh location. The ribbon cutting was followed by a Business After-Hours at the Pacific Grove Restaurant.

In conjunction with the grand opening, the Wilmington branch hosted a free Shred Day on November 4th and is offering a home equity loan and 15-month CD specials throughout the month of November. They are also running a "Win Car Payments for a Year" contest where one grand prize winner will receive $3,000 that can be put towards car payments. Entry forms are available at the Wilmington branch through November 30th. For more information on the Wilmington grand opening, visit: <https://www.aligncu.com/wilmingtonevents.php>

"We're extremely proud of our new location. The space is bright, inviting and we've assembled a five-star staff that is truly excited to help our Members with their financial needs," said Align President Ken Del Rossi. "Plus, with the location next to Lucci's Supermarket and our free eServices, it couldn't be easier to bank at Align."
